Description Made with Pietersite tear drops

Athena has a strong association with Owl and is the Greek goddess of wisdom, war, the arts, industry, justice and skill. Athena, Greek goddess of wisdom, of household arts and crafts, of spinning and weaving, of textiles. Inventor of the flute, the plough and the ox-yoke, the horse bridle and the chariot. Athena, goddess of war, guardian of Athens, the city named for her; defender of heroes, champion of justice and civil law.

Pietersite awakens the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," dispelling illusion and assisting one in the recognition of the beauty of the soul.
