Description

Forty unique cards will activate creative thinking, allowing you to access your personal unconscious memory as you journal. Intuitive knowing springs from personal experience, while visual journaling will guide you toward discovering your inner realms. The cards provide a deeper understanding of life's situations when used to conduct personal readings. Shaping new ways to see life's situations, the cards will lead you to understand personal meanings. Apply intuitive intelligence to current and important pathways. Take an adventurous and enlightening journey through your own consciousness—you may be surprised who you find there!
