Simple Compassionate Advice... $20 per question

Welcome!

Our one question Reading with Lisa is way to allow our visitors to ask Lisa for advice on just about anything, even when they have no time to come into the shop or do not have the need for a full on-line session.

Lisa has been an acclaimed psychic and proven spiritual counselor for over 35 years and is owner of the Awareness Shop, a renowned metaphysical center in beautiful New Paltz, NY.

Whether your concerns are health, financial, romantic or spiritually related, she can draw out useful information through the use of The Tarot. Through personal experience, she is very aware of real life issues and has learnt how to use positive energy and practical humor to deal with difficult situations.

Here's how it works:

First focus the question or concerns on which you wish Lisa to answer while doing your reading. It is important to Lisa that you to make the most of your time with her, this is why she asks for you to focus on your question and ask it in a concise manner, please be as specific as possible with your question, and understand you can ask only one per email.

A reading can be a very helpful tool to making the best of opportunities or challenges that you have been presented with.

* Please be sure to type your specific question upon which you would like Lisa to focus in the box above. You will receive your response within 72 hours.

The Reading:

Following completion of your order, Lisa will sit with your question and be mindful of your energy. She will pull a 3 card spread and record a video of your reading for you, which will be sent via e-mail.

It is not possible to be specific as to how long your particular reading will be, as this will vary according to the amount of information available.

Testimonials About the One Question Readings...

"I have been getting readings from Lisa for years now. I recently used the "one question" option. It was a huge relief to not have to wait for a full reading. Those are very helpful when you need direction but for a quick answer this was amazing. Lisa answered my question quickly which allowed me to make my plans regarding that issue. She was so on target I would definitely recommend this option if you really just need a quick answer. Thank you Lisa for offering this!!!" Jenny- San Francisco, California
