LON MILO DUQUETTE

The diagram is a complex geometric figure, likely a Sri Yantra or a similar sacred symbol. It consists of several concentric layers. The outermost layer is a circle with numbers 1 through 32. Inside this is a ring of letters. The next layer is a circle of letters. The central part of the diagram is a star shape (pentagram) with letters inside it. The entire design is enclosed within a circular border with numbers.

Description

It is named after the biblical prophet Enoch and is perhaps the most powerful and elegant of all magical systems. Dee and Kelley's work has formed the basis for countless magical systems, such as the Golden Dawn, and has inspired magicians from all the generations that followed, including the famed Aleister Crowley.

This book presents readers with the Enochian selections from the Equinox, a magical journal published by Aleister Crowley. It features Crowley's distillation of the work of Dee and Kelley along with an introduction by Lon Milo DuQuette, master occultist.
