

Rupert's Tales: Making More Magick- Kyrja. Illustrated By Tonia Bennington Osborn

Rupert learns more in this second book about making magick, including the meaning of symbols, some that are familiar and some that are new to him.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Salesprice with discount

Sales price $16.99

Sales price without tax $16.99

Tax amount

Ask a question about this product

Description

Rupert meets Grandmother Spinner, a very wise spider who helps him to understand why three children are gathering items in the forest to build an altar; and Goddess makes an appearance to teach Rupert and some of his friends how the moon reminds people of the Maiden, Mother, and Crone. With 16 enchanting illustrations, these two rhyming stories offer children a glimpse of the vibrant journey ahead of them as they learn more about how to make magick. For readers aged 5 to 8.

Reviews

There are yet no reviews for this product.