Description

Black and white images of grace and beauty highlighted with a single color accent on each card draw the reader into a world of charming antiquity rarely seen and experienced in Tarot today. An accompanying handbook describes each card and its meaning (right side up and reverse), along with basic spread-reading information. The images takes the reader on a journey that mirrors life via a central-theme character. Explore the splendor, energy, and magnificence of Tarot. This deck will serve as a great addition for collectors, professionals, and novices alike.
