Description

In Spiral Tarot, Kay Steventon conveys the spiral mysteries of the subconscious with the mythical imagery of her richly illustrated deck. Spiral Tarot incorporates figures from diverse mythologies including Ancient Celtic, Roman, and Greek. In addition, the Major Arcana presents kabbalistic and astrological elements. The Minor Arcana cards no less than the Majors are presented as full pictorial scenes with added visual elements that help readers relate to the meanings. Each card of the Spiral Tarot deck has been drawn with vibrant tones and exquisite details for a tarot deck of extraordinary depth and beauty.

Kay Steventon has been producing her uniquely symbolic artwork for over three decades. Her paintings have been featured at exhibitions and galleries around the world, including Fiji, America, and her native Australia. Working out of Overbank End Studio in Eltham, Victoria, Kay is a commissioned portrait artist, specializing in astrological portraits.
