Description

It's about coming out with pride, but it's also about entering into who you really are. Get to know yourself through these astounding self-realization cards. Each inspirational image represents an aspect of gay male living. Whether you use them singly for meditation or as part of a Tarot spread for divination, this deck will be a gateway to your higher self or an exciting path for exploring the spirituality so many gay men crave, free from the prejudices of established or formal religion. Created by a gay man, for gay men, The Son Tarot celebrates who we are and all the richness that entails.
